Joseph's Workbench

Death Is Nothing At All

Death is nothing at all.
It does not count.
I have only slipped away into the next room.
Nothing has happened.

Everything remains exactly as it was.
I am I, and you are you,
and the old life that we lived so fondly together
is untouched, unchanged.
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by the old familiar name.
Speak of me in the easy way which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word
that it always was.
Let it be spoken without an effort,
without the ghost of a shadow upon it.

Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same as it ever was.
There is absolute and unbroken continuity.
What is this death but a negligible accident?

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am but waiting for you, for an interval,
somewhere very near,
just round the corner.

All is well.
Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost.
One brief moment and all will be as it was before.
How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!

Henry Scott-Holland

Prayer for a Fragile Heart

Dear Heavenly Father,
Thank you that you are a God who loves us unconditionally. Thank you for being our comforter in our deepest times of need. Lord I ask that you would send hope and healing into my heart right now. I'm hurting more than I ever knew I could. I need you. I need your comfort and strength. Help me take my next breath and next step in you. Help me to know that it will be okay because you are with me.

In Jesus name, Amen.

So many hearts are hurting today
thinking of a lost loved one...

I pray God will help each and every one to find a way to keep sweet memories alive, to heal their broken hearts and keep them
open to face another day because life will move on and the sun will shine again.

Love Lives On

Those we love remain with us
for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories
never fade
because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be
more than a thought apart,
for as long as there is memory,
they'll live on in the heart.

Bless those who mourn, eternal God,
with the comfort of your love
that they may face each new day with hope and the certainty that nothing can destroy the good that has been given.
May their memories become joyful,
their days enriched with friendship,
and their lives
encircled by your love.

Prayer for the Dead and the Living

We give them back to you, O
Lord,
who first gave them to us,
And as you did not lose them
in giving,
so we do not lose them in the
return.

Not as the world gives do you give,
O lover of souls!

For what is yours is ours also,
if we belong to you.

Life is unending because love is undying,
and boundaries of this mortal life
are but a horizon
and a horizon is but the limit of our sight.

Lift us up, strong Son of God,
that we may see further!
Strengthen us in faith,
that we may see beyond the horizon.

And while you prepare a place for us,
as you have always promised,
prepare us also for that happy place,
that where you are we may be also,
with those we have loved, forever.

If you love something,
love it completely,
cherish it, say it,
but most importantly, show it.
Life is finite and fragile,
and just because something
is there for one day,
it might not be the next.
Never take that for granted.
Say what you need to say,
then say a little more.
Say too much. Show too much.
Love too much.
Everything is temporary but love.
Love outlives us all.
