Joseph's Workbench

I'm writing this column on Election Day, I voted, of course, and I returned from the experience very impressed by the good cheer and efficiency of the poll workers. There was a line when I arrived but the workers got us all through in about ten minutes! My polling place is our parish center, so I only had to walk across the parking lot, but there was a steady stream of cars.

Voting is a civic duty and part of what it means to be American. When the United States began only free white men could vote in most states, and even then there were property owning requirements to vote in most states. Yet even this limited franchise was revolutionary in 1788, the year of our first presidential and congressional elections under the new constitution. Almost all nations at this time were ruled by kings, and the idea of electing a national leader seemed foolish. George Washington stepped down voluntarily in 1797, a move that astonished the world, a leader voluntarily giving up power. In 1801 we had the first peaceful transfer of power from one political party to another in world history, John Adams accepting the results of a close election and recognizing Thomas Jefferson as the new president. It took a Civil War and amending the constitution and a nationwide civil rights movement in the 1960s before the promise of full voting rights for all Americans regardless of race or sex was fulfilled.

I know my lone vote is not able to shift the fate of the nation, state, or even locality where I vote. Yet my vote is one voice saying I believe in our system of government, even when I disagree with the outcome. Every vote counts because every election is thousands, no, millions of citizens participating in our government.

"Give honor to all, love the community, fear God, honor the king (1 Peter 2:17)." These words from the Bible show us that supporting our system of government is something we owe to God. These words of St. Peter are remarkable because he makes them when the Roman Empire, the government of the time, is persecuting Christians! Eventually even St. Peter himself would die a martyr in the arena under government of the Empire. Yet Peter still says we should honor government (the king), why?

The early Christians couldn't vote, they were persecuted, yet they knew government, even one that persecuted them, did good. The Empire enforced good laws, its armies defended the borders from barbarians, the Church, even with persecution, could spread the Gospel under the government of the Roman Empire.

We modern Catholic Christians should be thankful for our liberties and exercise all our rights as citizens to influence our government and society towards good, especially by bringing people to Christ. We may roll our eyes at mindless partisanship, does anyone believe those fifteen to thirty second attack ads? I hope no one bases a vote on what those ads say! No, our system is not perfect, but it is a government we all have a voice in.

Let's pray for our country, for all those who are elected and try to live those words of St. Peter, "Give honor to all, love the community, fear God, honor the king."

Heart speaks to heart,

Fr. Rob Hyde

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ.

We pray that You inspire young people who you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will.

Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached,
the poor are served with love,
the suffering are comforted,
and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Also, Aldi gift cards are always appreciated for when the Food Bank does not have milk or eggs available.
Thank you very much for your support of the St.
Joseph's Food Pantry.

Parish Service for Our Homebound Parishioners

We have a service to parishioners who are homebound and/or alone and would welcome someone to bring them the Eucharist. We

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

TRUNK OR TREAT HARVEST FEST PARISH EVENT:

On October 30th we held our Trunk Or Treat and Harvest Fest once again at St. Joseph's. What an incredible day! Twenty of our amazing families and students decorated their Trunks with creative and fun ideas and were visited by the little ones ready with their treat bags to get some candy. We also had some of our Confirmation students all dressed up to hand out candy. The Camillus Fire Department was there so the kids could check out the Firetruck and I can tell you it was a big highlight! Twenty of our Faith Formation families decorated scarecrows with many different themes for our best scarecrow contest.

It was a very special day for our Parish...the decorations, the many happy faces of the children and
"much" older children at heart, the smiles, the laughter and then of course the food, the beautiful weather, our many student and adult volunteers who were our traffic control, servers, floaters, set-up & clean-up all made it so heartwarming to see just how much St.
Joseph's parish is alive!

Of course, with any big event, we have to have many volunteers to help make it happen. We want to personally thank the committee who help to facilitate, organize, and go "over and beyond the top" in making this happen! Julie and Bob Brissette & Dave Kaminski who always do such a great job in our food purchases, prep, cooking, serving, they always are our champion foodies (and they know how to bring in great assistants like Mary Pat Kaminski, Fran & Lisa Sidnam & Jim & Maria Bliss, Rosa Cannata)! Thank you to Dc. Tom & Barbara Grigson for bringing back our annual Theme Basket Raffle. All of those beautiful baskets & items were created and donated by parishioners. Then we have to do a GREAT BIG thank you to Rachel Francisco who once again, came up with the idea of adding the Trunk or Treat portion of our event last year and then again this year, what a success! We especially want to recognize Guinta Produce who donated all of the potatoes, pumpkins, cider and apples and Lou Ciarla of Coke who donated the root beer for our floats!

Congrats to our Marcellus Confirmation candidates who won favorite trunk "Under the Sea!"

Congrats to the Abdo Family for their "Witch" SCARECROW who won for favorite scarecrow!

If you were unable to attend this incredibly fun and successful happening, we hope that you had the opportunity to visit our St. Joseph's website and Facebook page to see the many wonderful pictures of the event!

ATTENTION PARENTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS & SERVICE PEOPLE:

For many years, we have sent care packages and notes to our college students and service people to let them know that they remain in our thoughts and prayers. We are so excited to continue this wonderful tradition but are changing it up again this year. Due to the cost of sending packages, we have decided to send them a gift card for a coffee, hot chocolate or tea. Just a little something to help to remind them that they are remembered and loved. It might even help those college students to stay alert and awake as they study for those finals. If you would like your child to receive a note and card from St. Joseph's, please do the following:

For our service people: please send us their address via email or fill out the form below and drop off to the parish office by Sunday, November 20th.

For our college students: 2 ways to take note of:

1. Please provide us with your home address by November 20th because we would be happy to send these out to them when they are home for Thanksgiving. OR....
2. Please provide us with their college address by Nov. 20th and we will be happy to send it to their school.

LEFT-OVER HALLOWEEN CANDY:

Don't want those calories? Well, you can bring your left-over Halloween candy and drop it off to the parish office. Our Confirmation I candidates are sponsoring a holiday party for the St. Vincent De Paul inner-city children in December and we can use the candy for their goodie bags! THANK YOU!

ANOTHER SPECIAL NOTE:

You might find that one of our little Reconciliation candidates may approach you in church to ask you to sign a little Mass book. It's a special way to show that they attended Mass and what a blessing it is for our parish family to help our little ones prepare for this special sacrament!

In order to keep our Military list up to date, we ask that you call the office to remain on the list. Thank you and God Bless!
