THANKSGIVING PRAYER

O God, when I have food, help me to remember the hungry.

When I have work,
help me to remember the jobless.
When I have a home, help me to remember those who have no home at all.
When I am without pain, help me to remember those who suffer.
And remembering, help me to destroy my complacency.
Bestir my compassion to be concerned enough to help by word and deed those who cry out for what we take for granted.

Amen

Joseph's Workbench

Thanksgiving is my favorite national holiday. Christmas and Easter are obviously my religious favorites, but Thanksgiving runs a close third. Perhaps it's because I was born in Massachusetts and spent my first ten summers with my grandparents and cousins in Duxbury, Mass. near Plymouth. Every summer we would visit Plymouth Rock, tour the Mayflower II and go to the Plimoth Plantation living museum. In Duxbury, home of Miles Standish there was the Miles Standish Monument, the tallest monument in world because it was "Miles above the sea!" Some minor Duxbury humor there. Jonathan and Priscilla Alden's home was down the street from my grandparent's home on St. George Street.

All that history, however, is a minor consideration next to our family love for Thanksgiving. Both my parents, especially my father, loved Thanksgiving. The turkey, Dad carving, the food, yes we had green bean casserole, and the unintentional family tradition of forgetting about the pies warming in the oven!

Prayer was also a part of the holiday. We would always have a grace thanking God for all our blessings before the dinner. We also often attended a Thanksgiving Day Mass, especially once we were living here in Central New York at St. James in Cazenovia. Later, as a priest, the Thanksgiving Mass, whether on Thanksgiving Day or the night before, has been a favorite Mass of mine.

Thankfulness is a spiritually fruitful thing. Only when we reflect on and thank God for our blessings can we find the peace and joy the world cannot take away. Thankfulness is so powerful that great saints and ordinary believers have even thanked God for their sufferings because it brings them close to the Cross of Jesus and joins them to his suffering for the salvation of the world.

One feature of my family's celebration of Thanksgiving was all of us singing "We Gather Together" together. My Dad loved that hymn, and, even though our singing was pretty sketchy, we still sang it and do sing it together every Thanksgiving.

If you can, please join us in person or online for our parish Thanksgiving Mass on Wednesday, November 23rd at 6:00pm in church.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Heart speaks to heart,

Fr. Rob Hyde

Quick Request:

Our Confirmation I class will be sponsoring a holiday party for the inner-city children of the St. Vincent De Paul Parish. The event is happening on Sunday, December 4th. We are looking to transport the children here via a bus, provide lunch, games, activities and be able to send them home with a goodie bag. As with any large event, we need donations to help make this happen. If any of our parish family would like to help us with this great event, please place your donation in an envelope and mark it: ATTN: Confirmation Holiday Party or you can always drop it off to the parish office. We thank you for your support.

Sincerely,
Dan, Ian and Logan
(any questions, please feel free to contact Cindy at the parish office)

Christmas Luncheon

Thursday Dec 1st 12:00pm

Please join us for our annual Christmas Luncheon at the Inn Between Restaurant. Members should have already received a letter with reservation form that is due by Monday, November 21st.

Please call Cathy Seigal at 315-488-1236 if you do not have a form and would like to attend. You do not need to be a member to join us. All women are welcome!

Thank You

A big thank you goes out to all of our advertisers who help support the printing of our bulletin each week. Many of our advertisers are parishioners here at St. Joseph's and so we encourage you to give them your support in our community.

LEFT-OVER HALLOWEEN CANDY:

Don't want those calories? Well, you can bring your left-over Halloween candy and drop it off to the parish office. Our Confirmation I candidates are sponsoring a holiday party for the St. Vincent De Paul inner-city children in December and we can use the candy for their goodie bags! THANK YOU!

ANOTHER SPECIAL NOTE:

You might find that one of our little Reconciliation candidates may approach you in church to ask you to sign a little Mass book. It's a special way to show that they attended Mass and what a blessing it is for our parish family to help our little ones prepare for this special sacrament!

Our Food Pantry is finding it increasingly difficult to obtain all foods needed from the Food Bank of CNY to supply to our clients.

We are asking for your help in obtaining some of our most needed foods and personal care items to supply our Pantry. The following are items most needed:

Soups	Cake mixes
Brownie mixes	Hamburger Helper
Frosting	Pasta Sauce
Instant potatoes	Toothpaste
Scalloped potatoes	Bar Soap
Ketchup	Shampoo
Mustard	Hot Chocolate mix
Mayo	Coffee
Flour and Granulated sugar	Cookies

Also, Aldi gift cards are always appreciated for when the Food Bank does not have milk or eggs available. Thank you very much for your support of the St. Joseph's Food Pantry.

Parish Service for Our Homebound Parishioners

ATTENTION PARENTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS & SERVICE PEOPLE:

For many years, we have sent care packages and notes to our college students and service people to let them know that they remain in our thoughts and prayers. We are so excited to continue this wonderful tradition but are changing it up again this year. Due to the cost of sending packages, we have decided to send them a gift card for a coffee, hot chocolate or tea. Just a little something to help to remind them that they are remembered and loved. It might even help those college students to stay alert and awake as they study for those finals. If you would like your child to receive a note and card from St. Joseph's, please do the following:

For our service people: please send us their address via email or fill out the form below and drop off to the parish office by Sunday, November 20th.

For our college students: 2 ways to take note of:

1. Please provide us with your home address by November 20th because we would be happy to send these out to them when they are home for Thanksgiving. OR....
