Joseph's Workbench

Yet it was our infirmities that he bore,
 our sufferings that he endured,
 while we thought of him as stricken,
 as one smitten by God and afflicted.
 But he was pierced for our offenses,
 crushed for our sins;
 upon him was the chastisement that makes us whole,
 by his stripes we were healed.
 We had all gone astray like sheep,
 each following his own way;
 but the LORD laid upon him
 the guilt of us all. (Isaiah 53:4-6)

Some Bible passages become a part of us, like the Lord's Prayer, the Our Father, they sink into our hearts and help us understand God, life, and what's really important. The passage above is read on Good Friday and is a part of our Stations of the Cross service on Fridays during Lent. It speaks to me of all that Jesus did for us by his suffering and Cross.

I recommend reading Isaiah 53 this Holy Week on your own as well as going to our Paschal Triduum liturgies on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night. These liturgies are a way of opening up your heart to Jesus and experiencing all he has done for you, for all of us.

If you can't come to the Triduum, or even if you can, a great way to experience the wonder of the love of Jesus is to listen to the famous oratorio "Messiah" by Georg Friedrich Handel. The passage above and others take us through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus and on to our heavenly destiny. The most famous part of the oratorio is the "Hallelujah Chorus" (which we can't do in church during Lent, but it's OK to listen to it at home or in a concert hall!), but I would say the passages about the suffering of Christ and the promise of eternal life ("The trumpet shall sound and we shall be changed") are even more powerful in some ways than the Hallelujah Chorus.

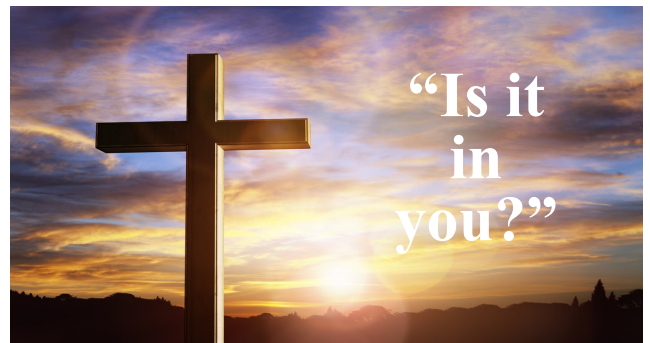

You don't have to buy a CD or an mp3 to listen to it, you can view a concert on Amazon Prime or other streaming services. The lyrics, to help you follow along, are available online as well.

A few years ago there was a Gatorade commercial showing athletes with blue, orange or red perspiration on their faces, the various colors of flavors of Gatorade. The slogan of the commercial was, "Is it in you?", a tribute to the dedication and grit of athletes (and Gatorade as the way to fuel their efforts).

We might ask the same question about the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus, "Is it in you?" Reading the Bible passages about Jesus, or listening to them being sung in a musical masterpiece like "Messiah", are a way to let the reality of all Jesus said and did sink into us, become part of us.

Have a great Holy Week! Check out our schedules in this bulletin for all the liturgies, confessions, etc. that we will have this week.

Heart speaks to heart,
Fr. Rob Hyde

From the Maintenance Department:

Spring has sprung and the flora and fauna around the property will soon be coming back to life! Last spring we introduced our "adopt a berm" program which is an opportunity for individual parishioners or families to help keep our grounds looking their best. In a nutshell, it means that anyone interested in taking care of a small area of the grounds may do so. We have had some wonderful people take on some of the berms around the property last year and are hopeful that we might have some more interested parishioners this year. There are no specific time requirements and all necessary tools, materials, chemicals etc. will be provided by the maintenance dept. Anyone interested can contact Dan Murray at maintenance@stjosephscamillus.org with any questions or ideas. Thank you in advance!

Merciful God,
as we enter Holy week,
turn our hearts again to Jerusalem,
and to the life, death,
and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
Stir up within us the gift of faith
that we may not only
praise him with our lips,
but may follow him
in the way of the cross.
Amen
