Joseph's Workbench

This Sunday is my 35th anniversary as a priest! I'm preaching, so I will go into the spiritual aspect of priesthood in my homily. In this column I'd like to write about the personal aspect of priesthood. I know we priests are odd ducks in the modern world. So I hope to humanize the priestly life a bit by the simple questions journalists are supposed to ask in their articles (they don't always do this): Who? What? Where? When? How?

Who am I, and how did I end up a priest? I'm the second of five children, my father was a businessman in the beer industry, my mother a homemaker. I have three sisters, one older, and one brother, the youngest. My upbringing was a normal 60's and 70's suburban upbringing, my siblings and our neighbor kids thrown out of the house to play on vacations and weekends. I had a very happy childhood.

You might expect that my family was very religious and that I went to Catholic schools for my entire education. Well, my family prayed grace at meals, and we went to church on weekends and holy days. I didn't think this was very religious, but later realized to some people that made us very devout! My education was almost exactly half at Catholic schools and half at public schools. I got a good education at both types of school, but I think the Catholic schools were somewhat better. I was an altar boy (when there were no girl servers!), and I think this did foster a vocation, I was fascinated by Mass and especially the Holy Week liturgies.

My mother always told the story that when I was in 2nd grade, around First Communion time, I was in the car with her and said I would be a priest when I grew up and me and my wife would take care of the church! My mom had to explain that this was not how things worked. I have no memory of this, and don't remember thinking seriously about priesthood until I was 13 years old. It certainly wasn't the only thing I was thinking about, but it was the one that kept coming back. My parents took the news calmly, telling me only that I should not do it to impress them! They would be happy if I chose something that made me happy.

One big impact on my life and vocation were the priests we had growing up. I did not move to the Syracuse area (Cazenovia) until I was 16, so the priests in our parishes in Michigan and Connecticut would be unknown to you, but we had some good ones. Great priests showed me something I needed to know, being a priest could be a happy and fulfilling life! Msgr. A. Robert Casey and Fr. Lou Aiello at St. James in Cazenovia certainly taught that, as did Fr. Philip Wilson and Fr. Matthew Stark at my high school, Portsmouth Abbey in Portsmouth, Rhode Island.

After graduating from high school I was pretty sure I wanted to be a priest, but I had some questions. Was this real? Did I just feel this way because I went to a Catholic high school that was also a monastery? Also, what type of priest would I be, a monk in a monastery, or a parish priest? I decided to test my vocation by going to a college, St. Lawrence University in Canton, NY, that was not Catholic. I talked with various priests and people about what type of priest I should be, especially, Fr. Matthew, the abbot of the monastery at my high school.

Obviously, I decided my call to the priesthood was real and that I should be a parish priest. Prayer and lots of interaction with priests, family, and friends confirmed my call to the priesthood for me. Of course, I also had to be accepted, the call to any ministry, especially priesthood, comes first in your heart and then from the Church, the priests, people and bishop who have to decide if you are cut out for priestly ministry.

I can't go further with the story, except to say I, and I hope the Church, made the right choice. I've been very happy as a priest. I'd recommend it to any young man considering it. There have been challenges, there have been tough times, but every Mass, every great celebration with God's people, every chance to make a difference in someone's life, all of this makes me thank God I became a priest. The 35 years seem like they just flew by! I should add that the support, prayers and love of all the people of God I've served over the years have kept me going. Thank you!

Heart speaks to heart,

Fr. Rob Hyde

Trinity Sunday

In the Beginning, not in time or space,
But in the quick before both space and time,
In Life, in Love, in co-inherent Grace,
In three in one and one in three, in rhyme,
In music, in the whole creation story,
In His own image, His imagination,
The Triune Poet makes us for His glory,
And makes us each the other's inspiration.
He calls us out of darkness, chaos, chance,
To improvise a music of our own,
To sing the chord that calls us to the dance,
Three notes resounding from a single tone,
To sing the End in whom we all begin;
Our God beyond, beside us and within.

Malcolm Guite

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH

St. Joseph's will be offering another series of bereavement support groups for those who have experienced the loss of a loved one. It makes no difference if the death was last week or several years ago. Grieving is an on-going process. We don't "get over it"; but, rather, learn how to live with it in a healthy and life-giving way. Learning about grief and sharing experiences with those of like mind are ways of helping with the adjustment.

Groups held on Thursdays 4:00pm to 5:00pm in the Upper Room.

The dates are as follows:

Thursday, June 8
Thursday, June 15
Thursday, June 22
Thursday, June 29
Thursday, July 6

The groups will be facilitated by Susan Lamanna. Susan is an RN as well as a grief counselor. She holds a Masters degree in Pastoral Counseling and served many years at St Joseph Hospital as a Chaplain. She also worked several years for the Hospice of Central NY, establishing the Center for Living With Loss (Currently the Grief Center). Susan developed a CD on grieving through the Syracuse Diocese which will be available soon. She has also facilitated support groups for several agencies. Susan can be reached at 315-247-7879 for any questions.

Please call the Parish Office 315-488-8490 to register for the group, but walk-ins always welcomed. Please note the next group will restart in the fall.

A Desperate World

We are a world that is desperate for you, God.

When powers struggle for dominance,
and war, oppression and abuse result;
When groups of people oppose one another because of ideology, religion or culture;
We need a God who is bigger than ourselves,
and our personal interests.

When people are disregarded and devalued
because of poverty, geography or disease;
When compassion and justice is withheld to some because of sexuality, race or gender;
We need a Savior who is more compassionate than we are who includes even those we would exclude.

When resources are mismanaged and abused,
and the world and its creatures are destroyed;
When motivation is scarce and creativity is in short supply to address the challenges that we face;
We need a Spirit who is more powerful and more creative than we could ever be.

Lord God, Loving Savior, Empowering Spirit,
we offer you these prayers
because we need you so desperately.
Captivate us, call us and fill us, that we may be carriers of your eternal life to this world that you love so dearly.

Amen.

The Holy Trinity

(John 16:12-15)

The Spirit comes silently into our hearts bringing love
bringing life
and pointing to the one who brought us life
Jesus the Christ
The Living God
In our desires to be the center and our desires to turn inward wrapping ourselves up in ever smaller packages
fearing that if we are not the center
there will be no center
in our emptiness longing to find that to which we can cling
The Spirit comes and points to the Christ
the one who walked with us
the one who lived with us
the one who was us
and died like us
only to live and bring life
This is the one to whom the Spirit points simply quietly
that we may know God's love for us and burst forth in new life
new creation.
