Eucharistic Adoration

Once again, we have the opportunity to grow deeper in our love for the Lord through Eucharistic Adoration.

The Eucharist is not a what, but a WHO: the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Adoration is a time of reawakening to the goodness and greatness of God and His merciful grace to us.

Adoration: June 1st begins at 9:30am and ends at 6pm with Evening Prayer & Benediction.

Joseph's Workbench

What does it mean to remember? Memory is a tricky thing. I have a memory of John F. Kennedy's funeral on television, I was three years old. It is probably my earliest memory. Do I really remember it? My Mom was crying, and I "remember" the funeral procession on the screen, but how much comes from my Mom and others recalling President Kennedy's funeral?

This weekend is Memorial Day weekend, and we will have a Mass on Monday at 8:00am (one hour earlier than usual so people can go to the parade). Memorial is a word associated with memory, it's right there in the word, but it doesn't necessarily mean personal memories, rather it means something that we must remember, because it is a part of us.

By the above definition the 4th of July is a memorial, Christmas is a memorial, any holiday is a memorial, the most obvious one being Thanksgiving when we remember all our reasons to be thankful to God. Memorial Day, however, means remembering all those who died in the service of our country. We are obliged to remember them because without their sacrifice we would not have the free country we are all a part of.

Yet these memories are not personal memories. I have never served in the military, most of us haven't, much less fought in a war. Nevertheless I wouldn't be here, living the life I am living without the sacrifice of those who served. Therefore, I have to remember and honor those who died, because they are a part of me, they made my life possible.

I do have memories of veterans I've known, my Dad, who served as a marine during the Korean War, he served in the US Virgin Islands as a gunnery officer, shipping munitions to Korea, and never saw combat. My grandfather, who served in the US Navy during World War I, he never left Boston, and worked as a barber. He was the first person diagnosed with the Spanish Flu in Boston.

Other veterans I knew were World War II veterans, my uncle, Larry Hyde, former naval officer, my scoutmaster in Darien, Connecticut, Mr. Foster, who landed at Normandy, Omaha Beach I believe. I also have ministered to countless veterans at the Syracuse VA Hospital in my 15 years as a substitute chaplain there.

This weekend we had the funeral of Mr. Henry Stamatel, 99 years old, a World War II veteran. I think his funeral Mass falling on Memorial Day weekend is very fitting.

You may not go to our Mass at 8:00 AM or the parade in the village. But whatever you're doing on Memorial Day, remember. Take the time to think, pray, remember those you've known who served, and speak about them to the family or friends you're with. On Thanksgiving we like to go round the table and remember what we're thankful for. Perhaps you can do the same this Memorial Day, but instead remember someone who served, especially the ones who didn't make it home. Then, if you're at a meal or cookout, raise a glass and toast the honored dead.

Heart speaks to heart,

Fr. Rob Hyde

Oh, what a time they had!

This past weekend we sponsored a fundraiser for our children & youth programs here at St. Joseph's. THE ADULT PROM was a true success all the way around! When people arrived they were amazed to see our parish center gym transformed into a true gala venue! The music, the company, the food, the drinks, the whole atmosphere was celebrated by all. At the beginning of the night, we were known as the PROM 2023 but by the end of the night, it was fun to see that the letters on the wall had been changed to the ROMP 2023! To see adult singles, couples, both young and not so young, show up in gowns and even some handsome dudes in suits (and we even saw some in tuxes)! Some people had corsages & boutonnieres and of course the ladies looked elegant with sparkle sneakers being worn by a few!

Next year is already being planned!

Thank You: An event like this needs a group of incredible people helping to make it happen.

- Thank you to Norm Guinto of Guinto Produce who provided all of the fruits and vegetables.
- Thank you to Lou Ciarla of Coke who provided all of the Coke products.
- Thank you to Josh & Abby Grothier~ Josh was our chef for the evening and Abby took all the incredible pictures. (make sure to check out our FB and website pages)
- Thank you to our parishioners who donated baskets for the raffle and to our special friends & volunteers who stepped up to help in a variety of ways!

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU to Rachel Francisco & Chelsea McClellan for coordinating the event!

We truly are blessed here at St. Joseph's, thanks again for your support

~ Cindy, Kathy & Jodi

We recognize our pews are not the most comfortable, but with budget constraints, we will not be putting in padded seats anytime soon. That being said, please feel free to bring your own cushion/pillow to sit on and make yourself comfortable. We love seeing our pews filled and we love having all of you here at Mass.

ON VACATION?

If you've been away or are going... any help you can provide with "catching up" with envelopes/donations would be greatly appreciated!
Many Thanks!

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH

St. Joseph's will be offering another series of bereavement support groups for those who have experienced the loss of a loved one. It makes no difference if the death was last week or several years ago. Grieving is an on-going process. We don't "get over it"; but, rather, learn how to live with it in a healthy and life-giving way. Learning about grief and sharing experiences with those of like mind are ways of helping with the adjustment.

There will be six groups held on Thursdays 4:00pm to 5:00pm in the Upper Room.

The dates are as follows:

Thursday, June 1
Thursday, June 8
Thursday, June 15
Thursday, June 22
Thursday, June 29
Thursday, July 6

The groups will be facilitated by Susan Lamanna. Susan is an RN as well as a grief counselor. She holds a Masters degree in Pastoral Counseling and served many years at St Joseph Hospital as a Chaplain. She also worked several years for the Hospice of Central NY, establishing the Center for Living With Loss (Currently the Grief Center). Susan developed a CD on grieving through the Syracuse Diocese which will be available soon. She has also facilitated support groups for several agencies. Susan can be reached at 315-247-7879 for any questions.

Please call the Parish Office 315-488-8490 to register for the group, but walk-ins always welcomed. Please note the next group will restart in the fall.

Pentecost

Today we feel the wind
beneath our wings
Today the hidden fountain
flows and plays
Today the church draws breath

at last and sings

As every flame becomes a Tongue of praise.
This is the feast of fire, air and water Poured out and breathed and kindled into earth.

The earth herself awakens to her maker
And is translated out of death to birth.

The right words come today
in their right order

And every word spells freedom and release

Today the gospel crosses every border

All tongues are loosened

by the Prince of Peace

Today the lost are found in His translation.

Whose mother-tongue is Love,
in every nation.

Memorial Day Prayer

In the quiet sanctuaries of our own hearts,
let each of us name and call on the One whose power over us is great and gentle, firm and forgiving, holy and healing...
You who created us,
who sustain us,
who call us to live in peace,
hear our prayer today.

Hear our prayer for all who have died,
whose hearts and hopes are known to you alone...

Hear our prayer for those who put the welfare of others ahead of their own and give us hearts as generous as theirs...

Hear our prayer for those who gave their lives in the service of others,
and accept the gift of their sacrifice...

Help us to shape and make a world where we will lay down the arms of war and turn our swords into ploughshares for a harvest of justice and peace...

Comfort those who grieve the loss of their loved ones
and let your healing be the hope in our hearts...

Hear our prayer today
and in your mercy answer us in the name of all that is holy.

Amen.

Next Sunday, June 4th
following the 10:45am Mass, we will have a small reception in the Upper Room to celebrate Fr. Hyde's 35th Ordination Anniversary.

Everyone is welcome.
